PASTOR OF UNITED PRESBYTERIAN IN
PULPIT, SCORES*Minister Offers Resignation,
After Criticizing Two of His Congregation.*TERMS REMARK AN UNTRUTH*Squabble in Church Caused, It Is Said,
In Part, by Reflections Concerning
Mr. White's Financial Condition,
Which He Indignantly Denies in Formal Statement.

The Rev. D. Frank White declared, from the pulpit of the First United Presbyterian church, yesterday morning, that unless the disagreement in the church was eliminated by next Sunday, he would read a statement then giving details of the alleged disturbance, which he said was a misunderstanding between himself and two members of the congregation.

The pastor said he had been maligned and abused until he was "fired." He vigorously resented a statement to the effect that he needed financial aid when he came to Connellville, and characterized such an assertion as an untruth. He declared that "we" referring to his wife, had not been "refused in charitable institutions."

The Rev. Mr. White said he had made three propositions toward a settlement of the difficulties, and read a letter which he said was dated April 1, 1912, setting forth his willingness to resign not later than October 1, 1912, if the disagreement then existed. He said he had suggested that a commission be appointed consisting of a minister named by himself, one by the opposition in the church and the third by the two churches concerned. This proposal had been rejected.

The Rev. White's statement followed the address made by Sergeant Major One of the Salvation Army, who spoke more than half an hour of the work accomplished by the Army in this and other countries.

TAFT AND AIDS MEET TO NAME THE CAMPAIGN MANAGER*President Invites Leaders in Congress and Others to Luncheon at White House.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 8.—The naming of a manager for Taft's reelection campaign was the job which the president and the nine members of a sub-committee appointed at the recent Chicago convention, wrestled with today.

The presence of a dozen national leaders in the lobby of the Willard hotel, gave the appearance of a miniature convention. Among those here were William B. Ewing, Jr., of New York, A. M. Stephens of Colorado, "Uncle Joe" Cannon, Senator Crane of Massachusetts, Secretary William Howard Taft of the National Republic in Congress, Ex-Senator Henry and Joseph R. Keating of Indiana.

The nine members of the sub-committee are S. A. Packard of Washington, Powell Clayton of Arkansas, R. O. West of Illinois, J. J. Adams of Iowa, C. B. Warren of Michigan, T. K. Northington of Missouri, C. W. Eaton of New Hampshire, Newell Sanders of Tennessee, and Alvin H. Martin of Virginia.

The committee met in touch with President Taft shortly after noon, and adjourned to the White House where luncheon was served.

ONE KILLED, TWO HURT IN AUTO
SPILL NEAR WAYNESBURG*Richard Ewart and Others Fall With Machine, 25 Feet into Creek.

WAYNESBURG, July 8.—One man was killed, another fatally injured and two seriously bruised near here late Saturday night, when an automobile turned turtle, plunged over a steep embankment near Blacksville into Dunkard Creek, plunging the occupants under.

THE DEAD.

Richard Ewart of Waynesburg, owner of the automobile.

THE INJURED.

Alfred Delaney, aged, fractured, compound fracture of both legs and internal injuries, fatally hurt.

Thomas Axtell of Kheel, badly bruised head and body, internal injuries, condition critical.

Joseph Webster, bruises about head and body.

The party had attended the races at Fairmont, W. Va., and were on their way home. Ewart, one of the leading citizens of Waynesburg, was driving.

After passing Blacksville the road runs along Dunkard creek for several miles. The banks are precipitous and the road narrow. It is built of slippery clay and has long been a menace to automobilists.

As the machine was approaching the main road Ewart lost control and the car jumped the track and fell into the bed of the creek 25 feet below.

THREE ROAD OFFICIALS ARE NAMED IN LIGONIER WRECK*Coroner Files Despatching of Trains.
Inquest Date Not Set.

LIGONIER, Pa., July 8.—Coroner H. A. McMurray, after spending Saturday night and Sunday morning here, announced at noon yesterday he intended holding the inquest for Ligonier wreck victims as soon as possible.

The coroner, he said, would be most thorough and every effort would be made to fix the responsibility.

It was said by Coroner McMurray that the despatching of trains rested with three of the L. V. R. R. officials, R. R. Minch, assistant superintendent, P. R. Noel, car distributor, and T. E. Peop, clerk.

A number of railroad officials are in Ligonier holding a conference. They declined to make any statements.

Struck by the two recent disastrous railroad wrecks at Ligonier, and at Corning, N. Y., in which nearly 70 lives were lost, members of the House talked of a legislative program to strengthen the laws governing safety appliances, according to news from Washington, D. C. today.

L. H. Scisson, at Wheel of Machine, Arrested as Responsible, But Later Released on $500 Bond—Car Owned by Fred Brown of Scottsdale

MOUNT PLEASANT, Pa., July 8.—Jennie Long, aged ten, of Mount Pleasant, was killed by an automobile yesterday afternoon. The little girl, with her friend, was crossing the street when an automobile owned by Fred Brown of Scottsdale, and driven by L. H. Scisson of Connellville, knocked them both down.

Bertha Jones fell between the front wheels of the car and escaped with a few scratches, but Jennie's head was struck by a wheel which crushed her skull and broke her neck. She was pulled from beneath the car by Freddie Long, a sister, but died on the way to the Westmoreland Hospital.

Mr. Scisson was placed under arrest, but later was released pending the coroner's inquest, under $500 bond, furnished by Fred L. Brown.

Orle and Wilbur Long, brothers of the dead girl, are in camp at Mount Gretna, with Company E, Tenth regiment, and were notified of the accident. They arrived home this afternoon.

With Mr. Scisson in the car were his wife and two children, and Mrs. P. J. Collins of Connellville, and Miss Terese Collins, of Scottsdale.

SOAKED IN COFFEE
Until Too Stiff to Bend Over.

"When I drank coffee I often had sick headaches, nervousness and biliousness much of the time; but about two years ago I went to visit a friend and got in the habit of drinking Postum.

"I have never touched coffee since and the result has been that I am now entirely well of all my stomach and nervous trouble. (Tea contains caffeine, the same drug found in coffee.)

"My mother was just the same way. We all drink Postum now, and have not had any coffee in the house for two years and we are all well.

"A neighbor of mine, a great coffee drinker, was doubled with pains in her side for years and was an invalid. She was not able to do her work and could not even mend clothes or do anything at all where she would have to bend forward. If she tried to do a little hard work she would get such pains that she would have to lie down for the rest of the day.

"I persuaded her at least to stop drinking coffee and try Postum, and she did so, and she has used Postum ever since. The result has been that she can do her work as well as at her whole day and mend and can sew on the machine and she never feels the least bit of pain in her side. In fact, she has got well and it shows coffee was the cause of the whole trouble.

"I could also tell you about several other neighbors who have been benefited by getting coffee and using Postum in its place." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

THE EIFFEL TOWER, Paris, is the biggest thing of its kind in the world. It is 1,000 feet high and was the great attraction of the World's Exposition held in Paris in 1899. Visitors are carried to the top of the tower in elevators, and the view from this dizzy height is as entrancing as it is unusual. It is the nearest thing to a ride in an airship, which has so far been experienced in a structure solidly anchored to the ground. The big package of Washington Crisps is, likewise, the biggest thing of its kind in the world.

THE LIGNONER WRECK.

It is announced that the Ligonier Valley wreck will be investigated by the Interstate Commerce Commission. It will also be investigated by the Coroner of Westmoreland county. It needs investigation. The inquiries cannot be too searching. Somebody has blundered, somebody is to blame. They may be living; they may be dead. It is important, however, that their mistakes shall not be repeated.

The newspaper accounts of the disaster say that the wreck was due to a misunderstanding of laws; that it was due to the fact that the downcoming double-headed freight train was around a curve and the trainmen were unable to see the approaching passenger train; that the freight train was trying to reach Ligonier before the passenger train left; that the passenger train left Ligonier on time.

If the passenger train left on time and the freight train was trying to reach Ligonier before the passenger train left then it is obvious that the freight train was running on the passenger train's time. If without the warrant of orders, then the conductor of the freight train is responsible, but if on orders then responsibility is higher up even though it may have been a "misunderstanding."

But where is it? It is well doubtless be located as it should. If such a slaughter is due to carelessness that carelessness was of the criminal kind.

COAL AND COKE CONSERVATION.

The doctrine of conservation is slowly but surely coming to its own, not only in preserving our natural resources from needless waste, but also in new processes for the recovery of by-products and the utilization of low-grade materials hitherto regarded as being of little or no value.

Low-grade coals are being converted into producer gas for use in gas engines to produce electricity which is transmitted over a large area of territory cheaply and efficiently. Genius should turn its attention to the recovery of the millions of feet of gas that go to waste in the Conneltsville coke region and the hundreds of tons of coke breeze that is dumped away to get rid of it.

In the language of Colonel Mulberry Sellers, "There's millions in it."

THE HUTCHERSON CASE.

The second victim of Policeman Hutcherson's bullets is dead and the Fayette City guardian of the peace will have to answer for a double murder. He will plead self-defense, but this plea will be contested by the prosecution urged strongly by friends of the dead men who assert that they committed no assault upon Hutcherson. We will wait the defense before attempting to pass any judgment, but in the meantime it may be remarked that the stories are highly conflicting and that the presumption is always and properly with the officer that he has acted within the law in the performance of his disagreeable duties.

If Policeman Hutcherson has not acted, the proof will have to be clear and convincing.

The Democratic statement who have been playing politics at Washington are getting ready to close up the Congressional game and get out into the open. The Stanley Steel probe report will be presented to the House tomorrow, and the other political chapters will be rapidly written into the record for use during the fall campaign. Under benevolent Protection, the business of making campaign material has prospered greatly.

Automobile accidents are becoming as frequent as or fatal as aviation accidents.

A Pittsburg party named Tiers has preempted the Progressive party name in Pennsylvania and proposes to bestow it upon Woodrow Wilson, to the deep disgust of Ted Roosevelt and Bill Filmer. But why should the "Colonel care"? Does there not yet remain the proud name of Roosevelt? For T. Roosevelt there is neither Tiers nor Tiers.

Pittsburg has cut out its muffer. It wasn't politics, but it is Progressive. The same kind of an ordinance could be passed in Conneltsville.

Councilman Storer has defied Burgess Evans in the matter of the housing of the new auto fire truck. One of the greatest objections to borough government is that everybody is boss and nobody is responsible. However, it is not very long until 1913, when the Mayor will be the real executive head of the city.

The alleged Conneltsville coke combine is said to be a creature of imagination. The price, however, remains solid and substantial at $2.50.

The band stand has come to its best use. If the local birds will keep up the good work, the borough authorities should appreciate it by providing a policeman to keep order while the music is going on and to prevent automobiles and other vehicles from parking in Carnegie avenue within a block of the band stand.

The weather isn't the only thing bad about the year 1912. The seers say it is hoodooed.

The Keystone party is for Wilson, not Roosevelt. We were not aware that there was any Keystone party since Berry got back. We were under the impression that the Keystoneers had come back to their own, and that only a few of the unregenerate Guffey (the) were outside the breastworks.

"Are you Rump or Regular?" is the question asked West Virginia Republican candidates. West Virginia is only a little in advance of other States.

The Chamber of Commerce should out forth its best efforts to get Conneltsville within the Pittsburgh radius and procure the abolition of switching charges here. It will probably be easier to get rid of the latter than it will be to get into the former.

The railroads will be further regulated by Congress, not for the purpose of revising rates, but with a view to minimizing dangers.

The water mains have received a thorough spring cleaning. They should be cleaned at regular intervals. The water company ought to publicly demonstrate its faith in its own product. "Faith without works is dead."

There is a Bible School Convention in session at Washington, but not at the Capitol.

The Monocahela river coal trade for the first half of 1912 has fallen off 20%. The Panama Canal is not yet completed.

The Indian Creek bass will not arrive until this fall and will not be available until next summer. They will have to grow some.

The West Penn is invading Washington county and getting ready to connect the coming Greene county region with the centers of populations.

THE CROSSINGS OF A HISTORIC TRAIL.

From the Meyersdale Republican.

Great Crossings Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution has done a very commendable thing in erecting a monument with a suitably inscribed bronze tablet marking the historic bridge and crossing place of the Youngbush river at Seneca field, Pa., known in the nomenclature of the National Pike as "Great Crossings." The bridge that spans the river at this point was constructed in 1813 and is one of the most distinctive landmarks of historic interest in this section of the country. Second to it only in historic interest, and even more imposing in architectural appearance, is the famous stone bridge across the Conestoga River, one mile east of Grantville, Md., and ten miles south of Maryland, at the place known as "Little Crossings." This magnificent structure which was also built in 1813, has recently been repaired and restored to its original grandeur and proportions by the Highway Department of the State of Maryland. It is even more durable than the "Great Crossings" bridge, and it is a concrete coping has been placed on top of the side walls, making it more impervious to the elements and safe from the hands of vandals which had almost completely destroyed the original walls.

The remarkable bridge with its single half-circle arch, of 38 feet diameter, is worth going miles to see. It is almost on the exact line of the old Braddock Road and is a landmark well worth marking and preserving by the patriotic Daughters of the American Revolution. Every issue of the paper appears a picture of the monument and tablet unveiled last week by Great Crossings Chapter, D. A. R., at Great Crossings, and a report of the proceedings, together with some historical data of the occasion. It is hoped that D. A. R. will equal soon and patriotism will now proceed to mark "Little Crossings" in like manner in the near future.

This time for doing this is propitious since the States of Maryland and Pennsylvania are rebuilding the old National Pike which is destined to become an important link in a great "ocean to ocean" highway that will be traversed by thousands of automobile tourists. Already the automobile travel on the pike is becoming enormous, and the time is not far distant when more people will speed over its picturesque grades daily than ever traveled over it in the palmy days of the stage coach and Conestoga wagon, when the pike was the chief artery of transportation across the Alleghenies.

Nowhere along the entire pike is there a more picturesque spot than "Little Crossings" and here the myriads of travelers, by horseless carriage, of the future will pause to view the noble arch that spans the classic Conestoga. Beyond peradventure it should be marked with a tablet that would arrest the attention of all who cross the river, causing them to ponder over the historic events associated with the structure and inspiring them to loftier patriotism.

The patriotic women of Great Crossings Chapter, D. A. R., have done their duty well. They have set an example worthy for the Maryland sisters (upon whom the marking of Little Crossings devolves) to follow. Will they do it?

The Republican stands ready to co-operate with the ladies of the D. A. R. and our good neighbors of Garrett county, Maryland, in every way possible, to erect a suitable monument at Little Crossings that be unveiled with ceremonies that will attract the largest crowd of patriotic citizens ever assembled on any public occasion at or near Grantville.

SOME ENTERPRISE

By Isaacs of Yukon.

TUKON, July 8.—When Newsdealer Ed Hudson, of Yukon, says to Newsdealer Frank Metz of Wynand that the confection business in good sales, it is an indication that two men approve deadlocks and that our people seek purple light daily. Great party conventions which can hold ten days makes news business good. This is the only town in this land that has in working order one-story, square houses with roofs sloping four ways for Sunday. Almost a dozen of these new style houses are in working order on Monismills hill above the hotel. In the event boarders are picked, there is no second story window from which to fall out. A one-story house for picklists is as safe as a life boat on a Titanic.

The recent rains have worked wonders with the lettuce crop on the hillside and the elderberry crop along the creek bottom near the immense apple. The elderberry bushes are white with blossoms. There is a sure sign that nature is with us in furnishing material for elderberry wine. With nature and the elderberry wine crop with us, who can be against us?

The boys of Yukon are spending their summer vacation in the hills and near the railroad station. The little men are drilling in Wild and Woolly West tactics, such as capturing the horse thief and hanging him and busting the strike. Each one is a boy scout in reality.

It is too bad that Joe Hodak got shot and killed at a big wedding feast at Wynand. Had he listened to his friends and patronized our home drink industry he would be digging coal today. Joe will be a long time dead and his name will be quickly forgotten.

The Conneltsville Construction Company has been awarded the contract for making extensive general repairs to the barber shop in the West Penn building. New floors are to be laid and the walls are to be re-plastered.

BOY SCOUTS AT SCOTTDALE AID IN BLIGHT FIGHT

Plans to Save Chestnut Tree
Include Lectures by Member of Commission.

CONNELLSVILLE WORK CENTER

Everyone in Any Way Interested in Growing Trees Should be Present to Hear This Talk on Enemies of Growth—Other Notes and News.

Special to The Courier.
SCOTTDALE, July 8.—Through the activity of the Boy Scouts of Scottsdale the people of this locality will gain a large benefit from the work the State is doing in combatting the chestnut tree blight. Keller E. Rockey, who represents the State, and a member of the commission, created to carry on the campaign throughout Pennsylvania, will lecture on the chestnut tree blight in the Reid building at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening. The education in doing away with this disease wherever it may be found is one of the activities which the Boy Scouts have taken up. Mr. Rockey will have specimens of the infected trees to show, and every person who owns a tree should be present to hear this valuable talk. The saving of the few remaining trees of the country weighs heavily upon good citizenship, and this work of tree conservation of all kinds is carried on in different ways. Conneltsville is a center for observation work, and the school laboratories have been given over for the purpose of experiments and tests. Blight has been discovered in several places in this section and the time has come to fight it successfully, or lose the chestnut trees. Boy Scout Masters are held agents of the Commission, and also Deputy Fire Wardens. They will be glad to furnish information and to help in any way they can. Every tree Scout is able to investigate this matter and help with the fight. So be everyone else, and a large audience is expected to be present, as there are many people in this vicinity members of the Horticultural Association, fruit growers, and anxious to learn all they can about trees, so that this will be a good opportunity.

DISAPPOINTED.
A large crowd of the fans were gathered on Saturday afternoon in front upon seeing the baseball game scheduled by the Nonpareils, the old Fort Wayne team, with the Scottsdale Baseball Association team. The Pittsburgh team did not come and there was much disappointment over this, as the locals had gone to a good deal of expense to greet the visiting team, and a great many people lost in afternoon of sports. No explanation was given by the Nonpareils as to why they did not show up.

ELECTION FIELD.
The Men's Bible class of the First Methodist Episcopal church held their election of officers yesterday morning. E. V. Derry was chosen president; Homer M. Boyd, vice president; W. C. Pope, treasurer; Robert M. Young, secretary, and A. L. Porter, assistant secretary. Judson T. Strickland, president for several years, was chosen as teacher, with Dr. C. L. Hays and Robert Wiley, both of whom have served as teachers, as the assistants. The class is in good shape, and the pastor, Rev. H. S. Tipton, made a brief speech, commending the class very strongly on the successful, patriotic meeting they held the preceding Sunday.

RUSE-HOCKENBURY.
Miss May Hockenbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hockenbury, and Randle Ruse, of Jackson, were married at Cumberland, Md., on Saturday. The bride has been for some time the bookkeeper and stenographer at Mr. Perry's mill, and is one of the popular young ladies of town.

Westinghouse is receiving an enormous volume of orders for small electrical equipment, such as fans and small motors for domestic use, upon which there is a comfortable per cent of profit. The foreign plants of the company are doing better in the matter of orders and earnings than ever before, and if current business holds up several of them will show profits for the first time in their history.

The Lady of the Mount

CHAPTER XXVIII.

The Heavens of the Marquis.
The day of my lady's riding party dawned; in the east a tender flame burned, and did nothing. The heavens an unbroken blue. Shoreward the mists rolled up, until only in the neighborhood of the forts did the white, soft vapor linger. On the Mount itself sunshine held sway; it radiated from the fortifications, "citraus of the rock," and gleamed on the church. "Ira of its majesty." It warmed a cold palace of marble; looked in at its windows, and threw bold shadows to lighten dark nooks and corners.

But my lady, mistress of the Mount, seemed not to feel its beneficent touch; standing in the full glow and looking from her casement she shivered a little. Already was she dressed, and her habit of dark green, fitting close, served to accentuate the whiteness of her cheek which general absence of color, in turn, made the more manifest certain dark lines beneath the restless, bright eyes.

"Your Ladyship!" After knocking in vain, Marie had entered the room and set down the small tray she carried. "There is something your Ladyship ought to know!" with an air of excitement.

The Governor's daughter half turned. "What now, Marie?" she said sharply.

"It's about Nanette!" My lady made a quick movement of annoyance, impatiently. "I did not tell your Ladyship, but I was averse to having her remain here. Your Ladyship does not understand, of course, and—"

"I do understand," said my lady unexpectedly. "And—you need not explain. I overheard you talking with her that night of the banquet!"

"Your Ladyship!" started.

"And I heard you speak of her father, Pierre Laroche, friend of the Black Seigneur?"

"And engaged her—after that?"

"Why not? I could watch—and I have! But you were wrong, Marie. My lady's manner was feverish. "Your suspicion was ridiculous. "There has been nothing—nothing! And day after tomorrow is the wedding celebration, and the next day, he, the Black Seigneur—" She broke off abruptly.

Had Marie been less wrought up, less excited, less concerned with the information she had to impart, she could not have failed to notice the odd break in her young mistress's voice; something unusual, almost akin to despair, in her manner. As it was, that which weighed on the old nurse's mind precluded close observation of the other.

"But something has happened, my lady," the woman half stammered.

"An engagement!" The girl turned to her sharply. "What? Explain, Marie!"

Disconnectedly, the woman launched into a narration of the events of the night before; my lady listened closely, with an interest and excitement she gave to conceal, half turning so that he other saw no longer her face.

"And here," ended Marie, extending crumpled fragment of paper, "is a leaf of the note she dropped on the bench. The man tore it up, but in trusting the bits of paper into his pocket, this fell out; I picked it up myself from the sand. I can't read, as your ladyship knows, and there but much in it—only a word or two! But it says something."

My lady's face was now composed; he hand she extended, steady; for several moments she regarded the miment.

WEDNESDAY, THE 10TH, STARTS JULY CLEARANCE

An Occasion in Which the Store Strives Faithfully to Give Much for Little. The Wise will Come--EARLY.

This is the Harvest Time

For Economies in Men's Furnishings

(Just Inside the Front Door.)

Only twice a year do prices on men's every-day furnishing goods go so low--January and July. The fine quality doesn't change a bit. Nor is there an undesirable item in these offerings, but the prices on staple summer wear won't be as low again for a year.

Sale Men's Shirts 95c.

Never so many kinds at this price--plain white negligee or pleated styles; colored stripes with collar band; plain colors or striped effects with collar attached; or with a soft detached collar. Never such good materials--close woven madras, clean printed percales; nor such snappy patterns, even at this July clearance price. 95c

Save half! Save, in some cases, more than half and from that down to one-fourth. And whatever the saving it is real because in no way can cheapness be attributed to imperfect or old merchandise.

This is our half-yearly passing along, virtually without profit, of all merchandise of a summer sort that remains unsold to July 10th. It's not a mere disposal of odd sizes, short lots, over-stocks or lines to be discontinued--it includes merchandise from every department, some of which is never out of season, at prices which go lowest twice a year.

You Won't Get Any Merchandises in This Sale That Isn't Safe--Everyway--to Buy.

We say this for the benefit of people who don't know the store. Our customers can vouch for the truth of it.

This is our eighth July Clearance and it holds greater quantities of fine merchandise--classier, more individual and perhaps, in some lines higher quality--than any of its predecessors.

This store has grown immensely in eight years.

It's a good idea to lay in a half year's supply of:

50c Silk Sox 25c pair

Not a cheap, flimsy silk that can be bought for "sale" purposes, but a genuine, pure thread, fast dyed silk yarn that gives the longest wear. All sizes; colors black, grey, blue and tan.

Extra Full Night Shirts 50c.

50c Silk and Wash Ties 25c.

We've quoted remarkably low prices on rugs from the finest makers in the country. We received a circular recently from the mill that supplies our best stock stating that certain of their rugs have been withdrawn from sale; that the product has been sold for the Fall season, and that if any new orders are accepted, the price will be at an advance. A great many rugs in this sale are from the house that sent the notice.

Then we have rugs that came through our membership in a syndicate that buys for seventy some retail stores—buys in quantity and gets rock bottom prices for its members. The highest quality is maintained and a price 20% lower is secured for the customer.

SUNDAY BASEBALL HELD LEGAL BY STATE COURT

Allegheny County Judges Declare
Sport Lawful on the Sabbath.

PITTSBURGH, July 8.—Judges Richard A. Kennedy and Charles T. McKenna of Allegheny county, handed down an opinion Saturday to the effect that playing baseball on Sunday is not unlawful, as there is no breach of the peace and the game is played in an unobstructed place. The legality or illegality of Sunday ball playing has been a moot question for years.

The case which came before Judges Kennedy and McKenna was that of Walter Young, a former professional baseball player, against 19 attorneys and business men of Pittsburgh. Since early summer the Pittsburghers have been seeking judicial redress on Sunday by holding a ball and playing "shutout" on a farm adjoining that of the prosecutor. No complaint was ever made until last Sunday, when Young had the local residents arrested by a deputy constable of Patton township for disorderly conduct and disturbing the Sabbath. The hearing was before Abraham Speckman, of Patton township, and each of the 19 attorneys filed a brief, the latter amounting to $20.

The attorneys among the Sunday ball players decided to have a test case and appealed.

SHARON TEAM MAKING PLANS FOR NEW O. & P. LEAGUE SEASON

Palce Steps Down and Out, Succeeded by Eugene Ralph Robinson.

SHARON, July 8.—Announcement has been made by George Traub, president of the O. & P. League, that the Sharon franchise has been turned over to local men. Owner and manager, Fred Palce, who received baseball here this spring, will step down and out.

A meeting of the fans has been held for the purpose of effecting an organization and settling affairs shaped for their second season. Eugene Ralph Robinson will be elected manager, and he promises to give the city a first class club. Several new players will be signed and six players. Games will continue to be played at Idlewild Park, but arrangements will be made for a better baseball ground for next year.

YOUTH PLAYING "WILD WEST" DIES FROM BULLET IN NECK

Samuel Haines of Harrison City,
Succumbs to Injuries of May 5 Last.

GREENSBURG, July 8.—Samuel Haines, 19-year-old son of B. P. Haines, of Harrison City, who accidentally shot himself May 5 last, in the neck, died at the Westmoreland hospital Saturday afternoon. Haines had been to see a Wild West show in Harrison City the day before he shot himself. One of the men connected with the show gave an exhibition with a revolver by shooting around his head. Haines got a bullet in the neck, which he found in the house, and was going through the same performance. The young man did not know the gun was loaded. He snatched it at once, and it exploded, the bullet striking him in the right jaw and lodging in his neck.

Steel Pipe Prices Advance.
PITTSBURGH, July 8.—The National Tube Company has advanced its prices of 7-inch and over steel pipe $2 a ton. While other manufacturers have made no announcement, as to raising prices, it is probable they will do so shortly.

CRUCIBLE STEEL TO EARN 13 PER CENT. BY AUGUST

Preferred Stock of Company to Return $3,250,000, 6% More Than Required.

NEW YORK, July 8.—Pleasant year of the Crucible Steel Company ending with August, will be the best since 1910, as the year will show 13% at least, earned on the preferred stock, compared with 10.25% earned last year. Not earnings should be at least $3,250,000 for this year, and this amount will be equal to 13% or 6% more than the preferred dividend requirements. The company owes preferred holders about 16% in accrued payments to date, and it is probable that part of this will be paid out of 1912 earnings.

Crucible has never paid a common dividend, and in the first two years of its existence, 1901 and 1902, the regular 7% was paid.

The first nine months of the Crucible year should be very favorable, and there is every indication that this will be held for the rest of the fiscal year, so that if 13% is earned on the preferred stock it will be better than most steel companies. Prices for Crucible stock are not subject to fluctuation to the same extent as other steel companies, and the market is more steady, giving the company a steady increase in earnings as the demand, caused by increase in population and manufacturers, grows.

SCHWAB FAVORS STEEL TARIFF TO BAR BELGIUM

Head of Bethlehem Company, Back From Europe, Urges Protective Duty.

NEW YORK, July 8.—Charles M. Schwab, President of the Bethlehem Steel Company, arrived the last five weeks, has returned. Mr. Schwab said he had been in Italy attending to the matter of contracts received from the Italian government, for armor plate. He had not given attention to any but financial matters during his absence, and spoke encouragingly of the outlook for business in European countries. The impression was affirmed by conversations he had with persons prominent in commercial and financial matters.

Of the political situation and the tariff question Mr. Schwab said: "I am in favor of a protective tariff, but it will be a high tariff on luxuries and a low tariff on necessities of life, so that the rich people would have to pay the bulk of the revenue. I am in favor of a tariff on steel for the reason that if it is removed, or excessively lowered, Belgium steel manufacturers will put the Bethlehem Steel Company out of business. This may seem to be a selfish point of view, but it applies to all the steel and iron industries in this country."

FIRE IN THE PENNSYLVANIA ROADBED, GREENSBURG, OUT

Blaze Which Retarded Efforts of Two Years, Is Finally Quenched.

GREENSBURG, July 8.—The fire which raged for two years in the P. R. R. roadbed, west of the Greensburg station, is out. After two weeks of labor, which many times endangered the lives of the workmen, the flames have been extinguished. The authorities are not yet certain the fire has been entirely extinguished, for, on account of the intense heat of the blaze, steam will arise from the roadbed for some time.

During this work, the Pennsylvania Railroad about 10,000,000 gallons of water to the seat of the flames, besides that which was supplied by the two-inch pipe line, flowing continually. Most of the time, three water trains carrying 39 cars altogether, were in use.

Approximately 40 men were employed every day in connection with the work, 30 working in daylight and the other 10 at night. The heat of the fire was so intense that at times the clothing of the men caught afire.

PREFERRED STOCK OF THE PITTSBURGH COAL AT 94%

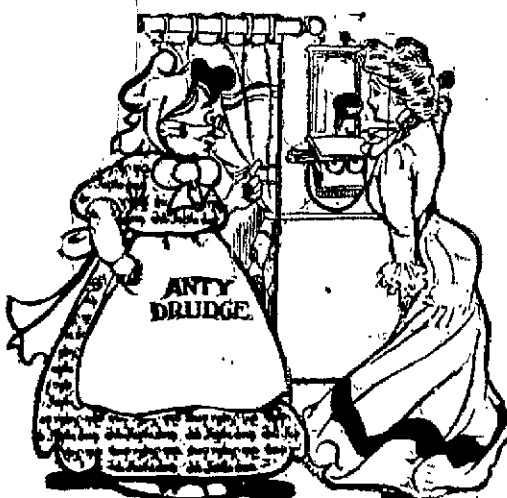

Issue Reaches New High Mark.
Due, Perhaps, to Retirement Plan.

PITTSBURGH, July 8.—Preferred stock of the Pittsburgh Coal Company has reached a new high mark, touching 94%. This further rise is in harmony with the steady upward movement since the beginning of the year, and is partly due to the continued improvement in net earnings in the second quarter, ended June 30. Another important factor in the movement of this stock is the plan which the directors have in mind, of offering to retire the preferred shares by payment of 137 in 5% bonds, covering both the principal and 37% preferred dividends. Just when the directors will take action in this matter is uncertain. But that such action will be taken is beyond doubt, although the opinion of those in close touch with the affairs of the company is that it may be deferred until the close of the steel investigation.

GENERAL ELECTRIC TO ADD $20,000,000 TO ITS STOCK

Issue, It Is Said, Will Be Bonus to Shareholders, and Free From Payment.

NEW YORK, July 8.—While nothing definite is known with the General Electric Company's plan for making a bonus distribution to shareholders has been agreed upon, indications are that the capital stock will be increased to approximately $100,000,000. On December 31, 1911, there was outstanding $77,000,000. The authorized capital stock is $90,000,000, of which $2,664,000 is unissued. The $20,000,000 additional stock will be a straight out and out bonus free from payment. This seems to set at rest reports that the shareholders would be obliged to pay part for the new stock. Based on present market valuation the 20,000 shares to be distributed pro rata among shareholders would have a valuation of approximately $36,500,000.

Money Saved Through Anty Drudge.

Mrs. Youngwife (at telephone)—"Hello Harry, you don't need to order those new tablecloths and napkins at Blashman's after all. Anty Drudge came in this morning and showed me how Fels-Naptha soap would take the stains out of the old ones. They're as clean and white as new now."

Anty Drudge—"You just keep on using Fels-Naptha, Deary, and it'll save you buying lots of things—everything you wash will wear so much longer. It'll save your health and beauty, too."

Stains are the great trial of a woman who does the family wash in the old way. Coffee stains, fruit stains, egg stains, occasionally blood stains, and many others which defy all ordinary soaps and hard rubbing as well. In despair, the housewife boils the clothes until their fibre is softened and weakened, but even then the shadows of the stains remain.

Such stains are easy for Fels-Naptha soap. They are but minute particles of colored matter clinging to threads of the cloth. The Fels-Naptha dissolves them into tiny atoms which can't cling to anything. A rinsing separates them from the clothes entirely. The stain is gone, leaving the clothes clean, white and pure. And mind you, all this is done in cold or lukewarm water, without boiling or hard rubbing. Fels-Naptha does not in the slightest degree harm the fibre of the cloth as boiling does. No other soap, no matter what it is called, will take out stains without boiling. Be sure to get the genuine Fels-Naptha. It comes in the red and green wrappage.
